WILL STEER CLEAR OF BREMERTON

Secretary Moody of the Navy Department has issued a final order prohibiting navy vessels from going to Bremerton because of the conditions existing there. The principal objection is to the saloons facing the navy yard, which demoralize the navy men, it is claimed.

Some time ago Treasurer Kepoikali issued an order here, that no saloon licenses should be issued on the water front.

Acting Secretary Darling of the Navy says of the situation at Bremerton:

"Under present conditions no ships will be sent to Bremerton. We are awaiting Captain Bleeker's report, which should arrive Monday. Until we are in possession of all the facts, the order to hold the squadron at San Francisco will stand. We must have positive proof from the people of Bremerton that they will maintain order and act in good faith with the department before we will risk sending ships there."

Another official of the department said "Bremerton has found that the department is in earnest, and I look for no further trouble. They cannot play shuttlecock with Secretary Moody. He saw how things were there with his own eyes, and unless matters are remedied and saloons are kept permanently closed Bremerton will have to go without navy patronage. Of course Bremerton will close its saloons."

MAY GO INTO TUG BUSINESS HERE

The tug Charles Counselman arrived yesterday evening from Hilo. She came here for repairs and to have her boilers cleaned. It is reported incidentally that the Counselman may be put into the towing business here by her owners, The Matson Navigation Co.

The Counselman is an oil burner and has had a monopoly of the towing business at Hilo. She was bought originally to take the place of the tug Rover, which is now towing the company's oil vessels in Honolulu, and it may be that the Counselman is do only that work and not enter into the general towing business. She has a gross tonnage of 132 tons, is 85.5 feet long and 21.2 feet wide.

Channel Is Rough.

The Ke Au Hou arrived yesterday morning from Kauai ports with 3600 bags of sugar. She had one cabin passenger, Miss Schubart and nine deck.

Sugar left on Kauai was K. S. M. 1800, V. K. 1200, M. A. K. 1200, G. & R. 1150, McB. 28,825, M. S. Co. 34,200.

Purser McNamara reports the Mikahala at Koloa and the barkentine Kohala at Elele. Choppy seas were experienced in crossing the channel.

YORKTOWN LOST A MAN AT SEA

The gunboat Yorktown lost a man overboard during her recent voyage from Honolulu to San Francisco. The Chronicle says: "One of the crew of the gunboat Yorktown, filling the position of deck blacksmith, was lost at sea during the trip of the vessel from Honolulu to this port. His absence was not noticed until the mustering of the crew, two or three days before reaching port, and none of the men could shed light on the manner of his taking off. It is believed that he fell over the rail during the rolling of the vessel at night. The Yorktown, after remaining at anchor in the bay all night, went up to Mare island yesterday afternoon."

SAILING VESSELS GOT INTO PORT

The arrival of two sailing vessels made what would otherwise have been a very dull holiday, quite lively on the water front yesterday.

The American barkentine Jas. Tuft arrived in the morning forty-seven days from Newcastle with a cargo of coal.

In the afternoon the American barkentine Wrestler arrived from Gray's Harbor twenty days out. Officers of both vessels reported pleasant weather.

An unknown ship was sighted off Diamond Head last evening early, but her name could not be distinguished.

FAILED TO GO ON EDWARD SEWALL

The Rosenbergs are looking for a sailor to whom they advanced money upon his signing articles of the Edward Sewall. Jack Carlson is the man who Rosenberg claims represented that he intended to ship on the Sewall. He advanced him forty dollars on the strength of it, but Carlson did not leave on the Sewall, and Rosenberg did not get his money. Now he has asked the police to arrest the man for obtaining money under false pretenses.

THE NOEAU BRINGS HILO SOLDIERS

The Noeau arrived at 8:30 o'clock last evening from Hilo with the National Guard company of that place aboard. She also brought a cargo of sugar from Hawaii ports.

The Noeau made a remarkably fast run from Hilo coming over in a little over twenty hours.

More Smugglers Caught.

The San Francisco customs officers continue to find cabin passengers who they claim are trying to smuggle in dutiable goods. Upon the arrival of the America Maru at the coast from the Orient recently trunks belonging to Henry S. Potter, a passenger, were seized. A large quantity of dutiable goods was discovered and confiscated.

The Oceanic Dock.

Nearly all of the roof has been removed from the old Oceanic docks, and also a large part of the flooring. The removal of the piles will begin within a few days. Work was continued on the wharf yesterday.

Shipping Notes.

The Niluah which brought in a cargo of sugar is loading it into the Fort George.

The British ship Carmanian is to go on the marine railway upon her arrival from Newcastle.

C. C. Cherry and W. J. Bryant inspectors of steamer's boilers and hulls at Seattle have been dismissed from the service by Secretary Shaw.

The bark W. H. Dimond from Honolulu was held in quarantine at San Francisco, and only released on June 3rd. She had five passengers from here.

Commander D. D. V. Stuart who was in command of the Yorktown on her visit to Honolulu recently has been detached from duty with the gunboat, and is ordered home to await orders. On June 3rd the Marion Chilcott departed for Honolulu from San Francisco with a cargo of oil. On the same day the schooner Rosamond sailed for this city with merchandise, and the bark Amy Turner for Hilo, also with merchandise.

GILMAN AND BARNUM.

Former Hawaiian Tells of His Great Opportunity With the Famous Show Man.

The principle speaker at the annual smoke talk of the association of Railroad and Steamboat Agents of Boston, held last night at Young's hotel, was Gorman D. Gilman. He was introduced to the threescore or more members by Pres. J. C. Clair in a graceful speech, and himself told several most interesting stories, not the least of which concerned his trip as the first passenger from California to New York, by way of Panama.

"I arrived in New York from that trip," said Mr. Gilman, "March 2, 1894. It took me several months to make the trip, the first part of it, from San Francisco to Panama, being made in 60 days in a brig."

"When I got to New York I was introduced to P. T. Barnum as the first man to make the trip. He asked me if I brought any gold home with me, and I said I had a few ounces. He said, he had one lump of 25 pounds, gold and quartz made up, would guarantee its genuineness, I believed him and wanted me to talk on my experiences, and casually lay my hand on his lump of gold to indicate that that was the size of a lump men might expect to find there. Evidently Mr. Barnum saw on my face and in my manner, that I mentally questioned such a proceeding, he promptly added with calmness, 'I would not for any consideration have you tell a lie about it, but you see everybody going out there expected to find lumps as big as paving stones and we don't want to disappoint them before they start.' I told him that would be a rank humbug, and he said, 'My dear sir, the bigger the humbug, the better they like it.'

"I met him again in later years, and he told me I had missed the chance to make my own fortune and to help him make his."

Mr. Gilman also talked of Hawaii, which he described enthusiastically as one of the coming places in popularity for tourists. As a contrast to the talk of Mr. Gilman, the president called on J. Karcher, who was one of the party taken over the Santa Fe system to the coast recently. Mr. Karcher told of the pleasures of modern traveling, so different from that of the days of the brig to Panama.

One of the most interesting speakers of the evening was Henry Lyons of the Raymond & Whitcomb excursion business. When he came to speak of the Grand canon, professional scenery purveyor as he was, he choked and broke down quite frankly in the middle of his speech. He, too, was enthusiastic over Hawaii.

George West sang, and Charles V. Dasey spoke for the steamship people.

BITS FROM THE WORLD'S MAIL NEWS

ST. PETERSBURG, June 4.—The Czar has approved the committee of Ministers forbidding Jews to acquire real estate or enjoy the proceeds thereof except in towns within the Jewish pale, until the laws concerning the Jews have been revised. There are 110 such towns where the Jews are permitted to settle and acquire realty.

AFTER WHITE WHALES.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 4.—Two large white whales, rare specimens at Atlantic Coast waters, are reported to be imprisoned in the Bras d'Or Lake, Cape Breton. They are supposed to have entered the lakes in pursuit of mackerel schools. Cape Breton fishermen are making great efforts to capture one of them.

THE ORIGINAL COHEN.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Harry Cohen, "the original Cohen," the first man to start a second-hand clothing store in Baxter street and who is said to have originated the puller-in scheme, which has made that thoroughfare famous is dead. He accumulated a large fortune, which is said to have been lost on the race-tracks but again entered business as a produce dealer and died wealthy.

A TROUBLED CONSCIENCE.

GLEN'S FALLS, N. Y., June 4.—An interesting case of troubled conscience has been brought to light through a letter received by A. F. Root of Glen's Falls from a man in Oregon. Forty years ago the writer says he stop at a store in Schroom River, kept by Root's father, and bought a number of articles. The storekeeper cheated himself out of five cents. The man noticed it, but said nothing. In his letter he recounts the circumstances and says that "it has troubled him all these years and that it was the one dishonest act of his life."

He enclosed a money order for 75 cents, being principal and interest.

SCOTCH ISLE FOR CARTHUSIANS.

LONDON, June 3.—The Duke of Argyll has sold the sacred isle of Iona, burial place of Macbeth, to the Carthusian Monks, recently expelled by France from the monastery of the Grand Chartreuse, where they manufactured the world-famous liqueur. At least such is the accepted story. It is understood that the terms of the sale provided for the preservation of the sacred and historical relics and association of the island.

MILES AND THE IRISHMAN.

General Miles is quoted by a fellow officer as telling the following story on himself: "It was during our pursuit of Chief Joseph," said the general. "One exceedingly stormy night we encountered on our march in the Bearpaw mountains a few woodchoppers' cabins. The woodsmen were not inclined to be very hospitable, but we finally induced them to share with us the protection their huts afforded. They consented, however, only upon condition that they should not under any circumstances be compelled to give up their beds. It fell to my lot to share the bunk of the boss, a very stern Irishman, who was not delighted with his guest. Hoping to establish an entente cordiale I said, banteringly, as we were preparing to retire: 'Come now, Patrick, you know you'd be a long time in Ireland before you'd get a chance to sleep with a general.' 'And it's Oi that am thinking,' he instantly retorted, 'that you'd be a long time in Ireland before you'd ever be made a general.'"
